2. THE DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (ie anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together as follows:

- Contact Data includes billing address, email address and telephone numbers, information from your device contacts where you have given us permission to access and process such information.
- Financial Data includes bank account and payment card details.
- Transaction Data includes details about payments to and from you and other details of products and services you have purchased from us.
- Technical Data includes internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website.
- Profile Data includes any ID you provide to us, any username and password, purchases or orders made by you, your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses.
- Usage Data includes information about how you use our website, products and services.
- Marketing and Communications Data includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.

We also collect, use and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website page or feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy notice.

We do not collect any Special Categories of Personal Data (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data). Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences.

IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL DATA

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you (for example, to provide you with products or services). In this case, we may have to cancel a product or service you have with us but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

3. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

- Direct interactions. You may give us your Identity, Contact and Financial Data through our website or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:
 - enquire about our products or services;
 - create an account on our website;
 - subscribe to our service or publications;
 - request marketing to be sent to you;
 - enter a competition, promotion or survey; or
 - give us some feedback.
- Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your device, browsing actions and patterns. We may collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie notice for further details.
- Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal data about you from various third parties including marketing services providers and partner organisations and public sources.
- Live Support On our website, you have the option to contact us directly via “Live Support”. For our “Live Support”, we use “Lime Connect”, a live chat software from Lime Technologies Germany GmbH, Im Mediapark 8, 50670 Köln, Germany. Lime Connect uses cookies to enable a personal conversation in the form of a real-time chat with you on the website. Besides technical details about the messenger status, the cookie contains IDs so we can recognize users with whom we have already had contact via the chat. You can find out more about the cookies set by Lime Connect by clicking on the link in the footer, which is always located at the bottom left of all pages of our Internet presence.

When you send us a chat request, in addition to the data described in the Section 2. we also process and store the URL from which you accessed Live Support, the subject of your request, a transcript of the conversation with you, the date and duration of the chat, the processing status of your chat request, and the number of your page views and visits. You also have the option of providing us with your name, location, e-mail address, as well as other personal data. These data are stored by us and retained for six months. We process these data to allow us to address you personally in the course of the chat and to improve our service quality. After completing the chat request, you have the opportunity to rate and comment on the service quality. These voluntary data are also stored by us.

The legal basis for this data processing is Art. 6(1)(1)(f) GDPR, which allows the processing of personal data within the scope of our legitimate interests, unless your fundamental rights, freedoms or interests prevail. Our legitimate interests are to provide you with a live chat, to answer your request in a purposeful and personalized way, and to be able to analyze the use of our live chat for quality assurance purposes. In addition, we store the data in conjunction with a specific chat request to ensure IT security and to analyze and combat attacks.

If you would like to use Live Support outside of business hours, you will be automatically redirected to a form on which you can submit your concern. Our Live Support staff will get back to you as soon as possible. Processing your personal data in the context of this contact form is subject to the notes in Section 4.a.

4. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see the section below on your rights for further information.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you and so it is no longer 'personal data' within the meaning of applicable data protection legislation) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

Your right to erasure (click here)

You can ask us to delete or remove your personal information in some circumstances such as where we no longer need it or if you withdraw your consent (where applicable because that was the legal basis on which we were processing your personal information). Your right to withdraw consent (click here)

If we rely on your consent (or explicit consent) as our legal basis for processing your personal information, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please Contact us.

NO FEE USUALLY REQUIRED

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these or any other circumstances where lawfully entitled to do so.

WHAT WE MAY NEED FROM YOU

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.
